Upcoming

Ways to meet the work

Vezuff Books welcomes invitations for readings, conversations, book gatherings, and reflective community events. New appearances will be shared here as they are confirmed.

Author Readings

Intimate readings centered on language, presence, and the inner life, with space for reflection and conversation afterward.

Book Conversations

Thoughtful discussions around Escape from Matter and Return to Self, including themes of rupture, wonder, and return.

Festival Appearances

Literary festival sessions, moderated talks, and public programs that invite readers into a wider contemplative dialogue.

Private Gatherings

Small-scale salon events, book club visits, and curated gatherings for communities seeking a quieter, more meaningful exchange.

Past appearances

From intimate readings to public conversations, each event extends the books beyond the page and into shared space.

Past events may include bookstore readings, festival panels, interview features, and community gatherings shaped by literary depth, nature, and spiritual reflection. Visit the press page for media context and future updates.
